The Direct Cremation Service

Our Direct Cremation Service includes all the necessary elements for an unattended direct cremation.

Our Direct Cremation Service includes:

The transfer of the Person who has died in office hours, locally to our Funeral Home (out of office hours is an additional £175.00)

Looking after the Person who has died and placing them in a coffin of our choice

Arranging a direct cremation by telephone or email, and providing all the necessary cremation forms by email only for completion, signing and returning to us

Providing a suitable vehicle and two members of staff to transfer the Person who has died from our care directly to the Crematorium of our choosing

This service is available Tuesday to Thursday only and excludes all bank holidays. This service will take place on a day and at a time of our choosing

The collection of Cremated Remains from the Crematorium must be undertaken by our client or a nominated person

Crematorium Charge at our chosen crematorium (*excluding £164 Medical Certificates, if applicable)

This service excludes administration or provision of any additional services

Payment must be made in full before we arrange the cremation date.

£1,395 inclusive*

We accept payment by cash, cheque, electronic bank transfer, and most major debit or credit cards.
