POLYURETHANE ANYTHANE

Flakes come in standard popular colour choices or customise the job by choosing colours yourself, available in large and small flake sizes.

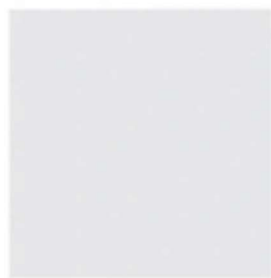

Epoxy Flakes can also be known as decorative vinyl colour chips, flakes or fleck.

Epoxy Flake Flooring are high-quality Noroo Epoxy coatings and hard-wearing Q-Coat Flake to create a cost effective and durable surface, a unique and customisable non-slip flooring option for a decorative seamless floor.

Different Base coat colours (White, Ash Grey and Gun Metal) can be used to achieve a light, grey or dark tone further increasing the colour range options. Ask us about customised flake mixes for a truly unique look.

- Epoxy flooring flakes are available in various colours that can be mixed and matched to your heart's content allowing for many exciting design options.
- Epoxy flakes have the added benefit of hiding minor imperfections in concrete flooring for a quality appearance and finish.
