

TRAVEL BY GEORGIA - POST CRUISE IN TUSCANY_LUCCA

MAREMMA - LAJATICO - LUCCA- CINQUE TERRE

Trip duration: 5 days | Travelers: 25 Adult

ITINERARY

Italy's wild heart, timeless cities, ancient crafts, and coastal beauty unfold in a journey shaped by tradition, flavor, and open-road freedom.

Begin in the Maremma, where the land meets legend: ride into Tuscany's frontier to meet the Butteri, Italy's last cowboys, and share a farm-to-table lunch in a rustic casa colonica, surrounded by pastures, horses, and true rural authenticity.

The journey continues toward one of Tuscany's most elegant gems: Lucca. Enclosed within its perfectly preserved Renaissance walls, the city invites you to slow down and explore at your own rhythm. Wander through charming streets and sunlit piazzas, discover artisan shops and hidden corners, and enjoy free time to savor local flavors during a relaxed lunch on your own. Lucca offers a moment of grace, balance, and everyday beauty, where history blends effortlessly with modern life.

Then comes a day shaped by art, music, and countryside beauty: visit Lajatico, a picturesque village rich with contemporary art, and continue to the extraordinary Teatro del Silenzio, the open-air arena founded by tenor Andrea Bocelli. Learn the history of this unique venue, admire the rolling hills and golden wheat fields, and feel the quiet magic that draws thousands to the annual concert. In the evening, enjoy an intimate and sensory Tuscan cooking class, crafting local dishes with your own hands.

Your journey ends with a smooth departure to Florence airport, carrying with you the colors, tastes, landscapes, and traditions of a Tuscany that moves from wild countryside to refined cities and coastal poetry — an itinerary where every day reveals another layer of Italy's timeless soul.
