

MAKING MEETINGS MORE THAN FUN

Boosting fun and engagement in your sessions

WHY THIS COURSE:

A common request in any training, meeting, or session is to “have fun.” Why? Because fun matters! Yet what does integrating fun look like, and how can one do so effectively? This practical workshop will address both, in addition to covering 50+ hands-on suggestions that can be easily implemented to boost energy and fun, ultimately leading to better engagement from participants.

IDEAL FOR:

- Individuals / Teams looking for practical ways to boost engagement and fun in sessions

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Gain a thorough understanding why fun matters in meetings
- Learn and practice 50+ hands-on ideas related to giving directions, opening a session, transitioning from topic to topic, setting up context, brainstorming, listing, prioritizing, closing and surprising in a session
- Build a strawman database / template for “FUN” that can be added to after the session
- Experience MORE THAN FUN!
- Create a personal action plan that encourages follow-through
