

Lenawee County Association of REALTORS® Membership Application Checklist for New Agents

Documents needed to join the Lenawee County Association of REALTORS®:

- A copy of your real estate or appraisers license. Must be licensed in Michigan.
- Completed Membership Application (within 15 days of becoming licensed).
- Payment for all applicable fees and dues (see price sheet).

Attending New Member Orientation:

It is REQUIRED that new members attend a 1 DAY orientation Class and an Online Code of Ethics class to be considered for membership.

Classes are scheduled throughout the year and you will be given the dates once you make application. All classes are held at the Association Office at 4125 Occidental Hwy., Adrian, MI. Topics Include: Local, State and National Forms and MLS Policy and use of the Paragon system.

These classes are FREE of charge.

Induction:

This is a brief ceremony in which you are sworn or affirmed into membership and agree to uphold the bylaws, constitution, rules and regulations of the Association.

The ceremony takes place at the next General Membership Meeting once you have completed your orientation classes.
