

Grant Publicity Policy

The Davis & Smith Family Foundation permits its grantees to publicly acknowledge the Foundation's financial support as is appropriate through social media, in publications, announcements and media coverage. In all such acknowledgements, the Foundation should be referred to as: The Davis & Smith Family Foundation. In instances when a press release is developed for distribution to media outlets, grantees should forward a draft to the Foundation for prior approval.

The Foundation will gladly provide its logo upon request for grantees' use in their public acknowledgements.

It is not the intent of the Foundation to seek public recognition for its philanthropic activities, however it recognizes that its support may be useful for grantees as they advance their mission and work.

The Davis & Smith Family Foundation reserves the right to review and monitor the use of its name and logo, and will address any concerns as it deems necessary, including revocation of permission to use its name and/or logo.

Any questions or requests for approval should be addressed to:
