

General Laborer

About the Role:

Reporting to the supervisor, the laborer performs a variety of tasks and has various responsibilities that directly support the overall success of the team.

Key Responsibilities:

- Responsible for own personal safety and acts as a safety leader in all capacities
- Perform various manual tasks and assist with operations at our shop or on project sites throughout our service region, as directed by the supervisor
- Proficient and safe operation of power tools and hand tools
- Keep worksites, equipment, and tools clean and organized
- Facility maintenance
- Keeping an organized inventory of construction material
- Adhere to all safety programs and protocols required by Wild's health and safety management system, as well as that of Wild's associates, clients and customers
- Work collaboratively with clients and maintain Wild's high customer service standards
- Participate in training and upskilling as required

Base Qualifications:

- Safety held as a core value
- Positive attitude and strong work ethic; self-managed with minimal or no supervision
- Strong communication, problem-solving, and multi-tasking skills, with the ability to work professionally within a team and in a fast-paced environment
- Class 5 Driver's license and clean Driver's Abstract, with the ability to provide own transportation to Coleman, Alberta
- Clean criminal record check
- Comfortable with construction and forestry tools (chainsaws, brush saws, grinder, Sawzall ect.)
- Ability to lift, carry, and push 50 lbs.
- Availability and flexibility to periodically work and stay away from home depending on project location and requirements
- Able to be clean-shaven and wear respiratory protection as required
- Committed to working overtime as required to meet project deadlines/commitments.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Previous experience in construction, forestry operations, or related field
- Mechanically inclined
- Comfortable with construction and forestry tools (chainsaws, brush saws, grinder, Sawzall ect.)
- Experience with loading, securing, and hauling equipment on trailers
- Equipment operating experience
- Proficient operating a vehicle with a manual transmission

Location:

Based in Coleman Alberta, with various on-site work locations throughout the East Kootenays and Southwest Alberta

Job Type: Full-time, Part-time

Compensation: $25-30/hr

The actual salary offered is determined based on the successful candidate's relevant experience, skills, and competencies

Opportunities & Benefits:

- Learn how to operate and maintain construction equipment
- Gain technical skills and exposure to design and engineering
- Enhance and build your career with a young and exciting company
- Training and upskilling
- Benefits plan to be considered after 6 months probationary period

How to Apply:

- Email your resume with references to admin@wilddevelopments.ca
- Only successful candidates will be contacted for an interview
- Applications received for this opportunity may also be considered for future positions over the next six months

Application Deadline: August 9, 2024

Successful candidates must be willing to satisfy the pre-employment requirements of a pre-employment drug screen and three professional references.

About Wild:

Wild Developments Ltd is a dynamic and innovative company specializing in rural land and acreage development and maintenance for private, commercial, and mining sectors. Some of our services include septic design and installation, excavation, forestry mulching, and hardscaping.

At Wild Developments, we are committed to fostering growth and development within our team. We believe in investing in our employees' future, providing pathways for professional development and the potential to move into specialized roles or leadership positions.

Join us and be a part of our exciting journey in shaping the future of land development, while enjoying a supportive work environment and the chance to make a real impact!