

Field Technician

About the Role:

Reporting to the site supervisor, the Field Technician is critical position, performing a variety of tasks and responsibilities that directly support the overall success of the team. If you've got industry-related experience and skills and are interested in doing rewarding work, being a part of a great team, and earning opportunities to advance your skillset and career then this could be the role for you!

Key Responsibilities:

- Personal safety and acting as a safety leader in all capacities
- Adhere to all safety programs and protocols required by Wild's health and safety management system, as well as that of Wild's associates, clients and customers
- Support the team by managing and executing various project specific tasks and objectives
- Ensure shop, worksite, equipment, and tool cleanliness and organization
- Manage and complete equipment fueling, greasing and stock of site consumables
- Work with and direct laborers in the completion of projects and objectives
- Proficient and safe operation of power tools and hand tools used for
- Proficient and safe operation of motor vehicles and OHV's as well as small equipment such as skid steers, tractors, forklifts etc.
- Work collaboratively with clients and maintain Wild's high customer service standards
- Participate in training and upskilling as required

Base Qualifications:

- Safety is held as a core value, familiar with industry standard safety protocols
- A strong work ethic and a helpful can-do attitude; someone who notices what needs doing and takes the initiative
- Self-managed with minimal supervision required
- Strong organization, communication and multi-tasking skills
- Good problem solving and critical thinking skills, able to provide innovative ideas
- Mechanically inclined, experienced with a variety of general mechanical and construction tools
- Team player, able to lead by example and provide input and support when needed
- Class 5 Driver's license and clean Driver's Abstract. Able to supply their own daily transportation to Wild's shop in the Crowsnest Pass, AB
- Available to periodically work overtime and stay away from home depending on project location and requirements
- Ability to lift, carry, and push 50 lbs.
- Able to carry out duties in the field in all types of weather conditions

Preferred Qualifications:

- Previous experience in construction, agriculture, forestry, or related fields
- Experienced with construction and forestry tools such as chainsaws, brush saws, grinders, Sawzalls ect.
- Experienced supervising others

J O B O P P O R T U N I T Y

- Experienced operating commercial vehicles including the use of logbooks and loading, securing, and hauling equipment
- Proficient operating a large truck with a manual transmission
- Able to work a staggered shift which may include Saturdays and/or Sundays
- Familiar with Windows based computer software including MS Word, Excell, and Outlook
- Experienced using mobile apps for communication, daily documentation, work records etc.

Location:

Head Office, Crowsnest Pass, AB.

Job Type: Full-time, Part-time

Compensation:

Highly competitive rate based on the successful candidate's relevant experience, skills, and competencies.

Opportunities & Benefits:

- Flexible schedule that compliments your lifestyle
- Enhance and build your career with a young and exciting company
- Training and upskilling
- Benefits plan to be considered after 6-month probationary period

How to Apply:

- Download and complete our application form from www.wilddevelopments.ca/careers
- Submit your completed application along with your resume and references at www.wilddevelopments.ca/careers
- Successful candidates will be contacted for further evaluation

Application Deadline: May 15, 2025

Successful candidates must be willing to satisfy the following pre-employment requirements:

- Complete drug screening upon request
- Provide a government issue criminal record check and current 5-year drivers abstract
- Provide three professional references from prior employment.

About Wild:

Wild Developments Ltd is a dynamic and innovative company specializing in rural land development and maintenance for private, commercial, and mining sectors.

At Wild Developments, we are committed to fostering growth and development within our team. We believe in investing in our employees' future, providing pathways for professional development and the potential to move into specialized roles and/or leadership positions.

Join us and be a part of our exciting journey in shaping the future of this amazing land we all call home!