

World War I ended on June 28th, 1919, when the Treaty of Versailles was signed, even though the fighting ceased seven months prior. A temporary ceasefire, called an armistice, went into effect between the Allied nations and Germany on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day, of the eleventh month, marking November 11th, 1918 as the end of “the war to end all wars.”

So on this Veterans Day, make sure you thank a person who has served in our Military. Whether it's a family member, friend, or stranger on the street, give them your appreciation for their service. It's one small gesture that would mean the world to the people who fought for our country!

To All of America's Veteran's & Members of the US Armed
