Sir Knights,

Here's hoping you all had a Merry Christmas with your families and friends and wishing you a healthy and prosperous new year!

There will be a meeting on Jan. 19th at the Moose Lodge with breakfast at 9 and meeting to follow at 10..

I had gotten a list of email addresses but if you have one and didn't pass it on, please email me at emattina@cox.net or call me at: (631) 332-7179 so I can get this to you via computer rather than snail mail which will save the Assembly some money in postage..

Brothers,

The Assembly has moved the meeting to the Moose Lodge on 24th St./So. Mt. Ave., Phoenix and to daylight hours to make it easy for the more senior members to attend. It being on a Saturday we were hoping to also get some of the younger members back to the meetings.

Please try to attend the next meeting since your input is very important to the successful running of the Assembly.

If you are available to join the members of Bishop Granjon Council on the first Fri. of each month in front of St. Catherine of Siena Parish office on Central Ave. to pray the Rosary for the unborn and pray to our Mother to intercede to stop abortions, it would be very much appreciated. Your whole family is invited to attend this Rosary . We meet at 7 PM and are done in less than half an hour.

Faithful Friar's Message

Greetings brother Knights. As we head into the New Year, it is a common tradition to make a New Year's resolution. Recall that on the Sunday after Christmas, we celebrated the Feast of the Holy Family. I would like to invite us to be resolved to imitate them this New Year. Our Holy Father Francis wrote in his exhortation that family is "where we learn to live with others despite our differences...."

St. Paul, in his letter to the Colossians (3:12-21), gives us some practical ways we can live with our family "despite our differences." This includes compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, bearing with one another, and forgiveness. In addition, Paul says that we must realize that when we share a home, we not only have to forgive others, but are in need of others' forgiveness as well.

Family life offers a wonderful opportunity to put into practice our life of faith. It is in the mundane and ordinary aspects of our lives where our faith life and family life can intersect. Sacred moments happen around the dinner table, in working on a project together, as well as praying and going to Mass together. There are also many opportunities to forgive one another for the little things - like not replacing the milk in the refrigerator, not putting out a new roll of paper towels, or forgetting to fill the tank with gas.

Remember, being a holy family was not a given for Mary and Joseph. It did not just happen to them. They had to work at it. From the beginning, Mary and Joseph had to learn to compromise and to sacrifice.

They had to let go of any assumptions about their future life together and how God's plan unfolded before them.

So as we continue to celebrate the New Year, let us strive to imitate the Holy Family. Let us recognize God's presence during the simplest times, even in our most mundane situations. And let us keep in mind that being a holy family is always a work in progress, but that through love for each other and faith in God we can overcome all difficulties.

May God bless you and your family with much love, good health, good fortune, and gladness in the coming year.

VIVAT JESUS!
