From David's Desk

What are you looking forward to this Christmas?

Have you ever felt like making a fresh start in life? I am sure you have. Probably some, if not most of you made a commitment to a fresh start to start the new year. This year is going to be different. I am going to stop some bad habits I am going to lose weight. I am going to find a new job. I am going to be a better person!

The problem however, is that while our intentions are good, our will and our ability are not, and we often fall back into the same habits, the same actions, the same pattern that brought us to where we are in the first place. When that happens enough times in our life, sometimes we feel like our situation becomes hopeless. Well, whatever your situation, in this new year, I want to offer you the hope of a fresh start.

Colossians 3:1-2

¹ Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things.

Do-Overs by the late Dr. David Jeremiah
If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9
 On the television broadcast of an international tennis tournament, one commentator asked his partner, “How would you rate [name’s] serve on a scale of one to ten?” The other commentator answered, “8.5. And, by the way, I don’t believe in a perfect 10.” And that certainly applies to the Christian life. If we were perfect and never sinned, there would be no need for the grace of God. But all who are honest will admit to seeking forgiveness from God for a failure that has been confessed before. At some point, we wonder how much forgiveness God is willing to give us. How many times is God willing to pardon our imperfections? How many second chances do we get? Thankfully, there is no limit to the grace of God: “But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more” (Romans 5:20). When Jonah, one of God’s prophets, disobeyed God, “the word of the Lord came to Jonah the second time” (Jonah 3:1). Jonah got a second chance. If we confess our sins, God is faithful to forgive us (1 John 1:9). Our past, present, and future are covered by God’s grace. Wonderful grace of Jesus, greater than all my sin.

Love Offering: If you would still like to give your offering, you can mark it on your check, mail it in or give to Nancy.
