conversation about faith and helped them understand what it means to have a relationship with God. 2 Timothy 4:2-5 says: 2 Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. 3 For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4 They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. 5 But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry.

Standing up for God in today's world requires courage, authenticity, and unwavering commitment. It involves living out our faith in our daily lives, speaking out with love and respect, and staying true to our values. By doing so, we not only strengthen our own faith, but also inspire others to do the same. Standing up for God in today's world requires courage, authenticity, and unwavering commitment. "GETTING

GROWING

From David's Desk

In today's fast-paced and ever-changing world, standing up as a Christian can be challenging.

There are so many things that the world says are correct, which are in direct opposition to what we believe. However, it is precisely in these times that standing up for God becomes even more crucial. Standing up for God means living out our faith boldly and authentically. It involves making choices that reflect our beliefs, even when they are unpopular or misunderstood. One of the main ways of standing up for God is having the courage to speak out. It means being willing to have open and honest conversations about what you believe and being prepared to answer questions and address doubts.

- OUR — Our sins separate us from God, creating a barrier between us and His presence.
- SINS — Sins cannot be removed by good deeds; no amount of effort can erase what separates us from Him.
- PAYING — Jesus paid the price for our sins by dying on the cross and rising again, making forgiveness possible.
- EVERYONE — Everyone who believes in Him and is baptized will have eternal life; salvation is available to all.
- LIFE — Life with Jesus starts now and lasts forever, offering hope and purpose both today and for eternity.

Life in 6 Words is a great way to share your relationship with God and defend your faith. For example, when I shared these six words with different people who I was talking to, it opened up a meaningful
