

Tom's Tag Tale

Tom is always happy when he goes to school.

He likes his classes, he likes his friends, but his favourite part is recess!

Tom and his friends Sally, Mark, Lily, and Chris always play games.

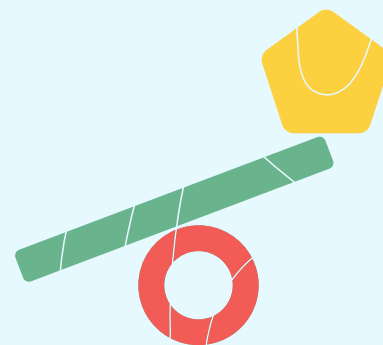

The games are in the classroom toy closet.

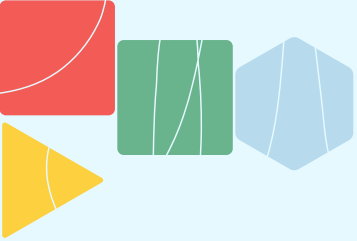

They grab the soccer ball but it needs air.

They look at the hula hoops but there was only four.

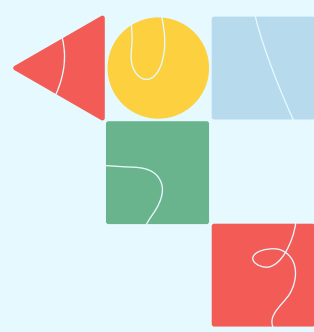

"But there are five of us!" said Mark.

What should Tom and his friends do?

Tom's Tag Tale

"Let's look for a different game to play" Sally says.

Tom and his friends run outside.

It is a sunny day.

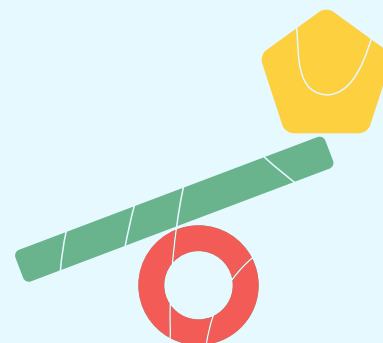

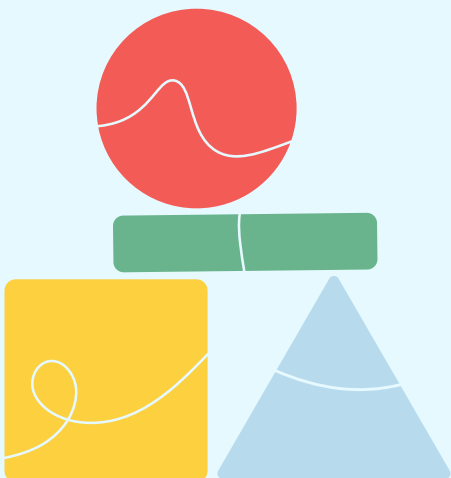

Jill calls over and asks Tom if he wants to play tag.

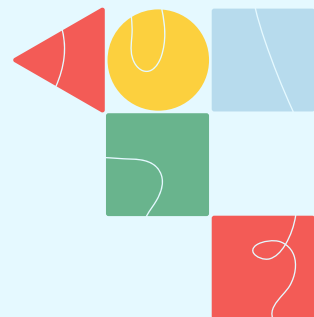

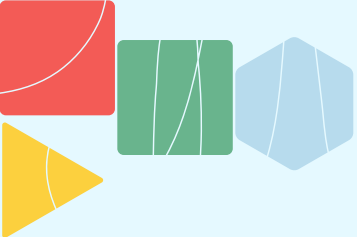

"Only if my friends can play too!" Tom says.

"Yes!" Sally says.

Tom and his friends play tag and make ten more friends!

They had a new favourite game to play!

Why can Tom and his friends not play soccer?

What other toys may have been in the toy closet?
