

Flashcard:

<https://www.cram.com/flashcards/town-and-city-places-14464877>

Crosswords:

<https://www.esolcourses.com/content/exercises/crosswords/5/crossword.html>

<https://www.esolcourses.com/content/exercises/crosswords/3/crossword.html>

<https://www.esolcourses.com/content/exercises/crosswords/buildings2/crossword.html>

Some factual and funny questions about Madrid - Student B:

- 1. Which famous Madrid square is known for hosting major events and is surrounded by over 230 balconies?
(Hint: You might be “Plaza”-ntly surprised by the answer!)
- 2. What’s the name of the Madrid market where you can sample gourmet tapas, fresh oysters, and even Spanish ham, all under a stunning iron-and-glass structure?
(A foodie’s paradise in the heart of the city!)
- 3. In Madrid’s El Retiro Park, you’ll find a monument that’s dedicated to which unusual figure—one of the few monuments in the world dedicated to this character?
(Hint: This figure is a real “fallen” star!)
- 4. Which Madrid street is often referred to as the Spanish Broadway due to its abundance of theaters and cinemas?
(You might just catch a Spanish musical here!)
- 5. Madrid is known for its legendary nightlife. What’s the nickname for the typical Madrileño (Madrid resident) who stays out until dawn?
(Hint: These night owls definitely know how to party!)

6. If you visit the “Rastro” in Madrid on a Sunday morning, what are you going to?
(Is it a trail, a market, or something else?)

7. Which Madrid museum has a painting that’s been described as a "who's who" of the Spanish royal family, but includes the painter himself in the scene?
(This one will leave you wondering who’s watching whom!)

8. True or false: The Gran Vía in Madrid was once referred to as “Spain’s Broadway” and has its own version of Times Square.
(Are the lights of the city just as bright?)

9. What special dish would you order if you wanted to try Madrid’s famous stew that has three courses in one meal?
(Hint: You’ll be "cocido" in happiness after this!)

10. Which Madrid neighborhood is known for its bohemian vibe, cool street art, and trendy bars, often compared to Brooklyn in New York?
(Hint: You don’t need a map to find the creativity here!)

11. What’s the name of the Madrid stadium where you can see Real Madrid play, and how many people does it hold?
(It’s bigger than most small towns!)

Some simple questions about Madrid - Student B:

- 1) Have you been to Puerta del Sol? It’s the heart of Madrid, and people gather there to celebrate New Year’s Eve.

- 2) Do you enjoy exploring local markets? Madrid has a famous flea market called El Rastro on Sundays.

- 3) Do you like history? Madrid’s Plaza Mayor is a great spot to learn about the city’s past. Have you been there?

- 4) Are you into modern art? You can visit the Reina Sofia Museum, where Picasso’s famous painting Guernica is displayed.

- 5) Did you know Madrid is one of the sunniest cities in Europe? How do you feel about the warm weather here?
- 6) Have you ever tried tapas? Madrid is known for its lively tapas bars. Do you have a favorite?
- 7) Did you know the Madrid metro is one of the largest in the world? Have you taken it yet?
- 8) Have you seen the Cibeles Fountain? Real Madrid fans celebrate their victories there.
- 9) Do you enjoy visiting old churches? Madrid's Almudena Cathedral is quite impressive.
- 10) Have you walked along Gran Vía at night? It's beautiful with all the lights and theaters!