INTRODUCTION

From the Publisher - Welcome to the inaugural edition of Lansing Herald Lens. There's a moment, just before the shutter clicks, where everything comes into focus. It might be a game-winning shot hanging in the air. A quiet glance, a burst of emotion, a split second that tells a much bigger story. That's what Lansing Herald Lens is about.

For ten years now, the Lansing Herald has been committed to telling the story of Mid-Michigan—through words, through broadcasts, and most importantly, through the people who make our communities special. Along the way, something became clear: sometimes the most powerful storytelling doesn't need a headline.

It just needs a place where memories are preserved, shared, and celebrated. Perhaps, years from now, someone will flip through these pages and say:

“I remember that night.”

To our readers, our student-athletes, our performers, our families, and our supporters—thank you for letting us be there, camera in hand, telling your story. We're proud to share it with you and there is no better way to kick this off than a look back that was the Madness of March.

FERGUSON

Basketball is a great game, that there is no doubt. But it takes a toll. Year after year the games, practices and moments unseen add up. Win or lose the end is unavoidable and it all culminates into one final moment.

This moment.

Capturing a simple yet complex moment of honor, gratitude, humility and grace so beautifully deserves its own special recognition. This is why we chose it is our photo of month.

“That game was exactly how we expected. Just a great basketball game between two great basketball teams... our guys became state champions because they believed in each other.”

PW Head Coach
Dominic Schneider

The Pirates finished their season 27-2 and were undefeated 18-0 in CMAC conference play.
