

Penelope (Penny) Furis

Biography

Penelope Furis was born and raised in Ambridge, growing up on Park Road. She learned a lot from her hardworking Parents and Grandparents. Her Father worked for Sears and Roebuck. His family were the owners of the Beaver Falls Electric Company, eventually selling it to Duquesne Light Company. Her mother grew up on the family farm and once married worked for the Papinchak Greenhouse in Ambridge doing floral design.

After high school Penny went on to work for Mellon Bank and then for USAir. As an amazing woman she managed to continue working while raising her 3 children with her husband Paul. Obviously, this was not an easy thing to do but with the help of both their parents helped. She had always had the patience of an Angel and tried to instill that in her children. She also believed in hard work and reaping the rewards of that. Another great attribute she passed on to them. After being able to go into early retirement she helped her oldest son raise his two children. Family has always been close to her heart and has helped in anyway she could just like her parents had done.

Now as a tribute to her to, her youngest son Chris named the business after her so that she will live in people's heart for many years to come. You will see Penny at the restaurant helping as much as she can and enjoys talking to the customers.
