We give thanks for all the relationships in our congregations and in our conference that sustain us, guide us, and help us to see the Kingdom of God!

MCUSA: Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary is offering two new scholarships for those serving in or preparing for ministry assignments. The application deadline is March 1, 2021. Read more: <https://www.ambs.edu/admissions/scholarships>

Thursday, January 21 is the anniversary of Anabaptism. Let us pray that we may share the courage of our spiritual ancestors to stand firmly in our faith.

Mennonite Missions Network: Seeking the Beloved Community: From Racism to Reconciliation. As part of God's reconciling work, we are called to dismantle racism and build relationships across racial divides. On Saturday, January 23, 2021 from 9:00 - 11:30 a.m. EST, Mennonite Men will be hosting a meeting, open to all genders, with members of Seeking the Beloved Community, a group of Black and White men in Elkhart, Indiana, who have been engaged in this work for seven years. A number of these are pastors and members of Mennonite congregations. To register, go to: <https://seekingthebelovedcommunity.netlify.app/>

Mennonite Mission Network praises God for DOOR's (Discovering Opportunities for Outreach and Reflection) creative adaptation of leadership training programs in the COVID-19 era. Pray for all the young people who have engaged with the Teaching Collective series, which offer a virtual space for discussions centered around race, gender, trauma and healing. DOOR organizes opportunities to experience God in urban settings.
