Play: Bad Angle Events is hosting the play Coop, September 13, 7 p.m. in Celebration Hall at Hillcrest Academy. Mary Swander's new play Coop is historic fiction, an enactment of true stories of Amish, Mennonite, Hutterite and other conscientious objectors during WWI and WWII. The core story is taken from the oral history of a young Amish farmer draftee who boarded a train with other C.O.s—Mennonites, Quakers, Church of the Brethren, and Seventh Day Adventists--during World War II. This group of C.O.s, told they were bound to fight forest fires in Colorado, were interned instead in a chicken coop. There, they remained under guard for the rest of the war. More information at BadAngleEvents.org. This event is FREE; no tickets are required.
