Registration Now Open for the 2025 Global Pyramid Conference

Featuring Breakthrough Scientific Research from Italy's Khafre Project Team

Wadsworth, Illinois – September 26–28, 2025 — The International Scientific Global Pyramid Conference returns this fall to its symbolic setting, the iconic Gold Pyramid House in Wadsworth, IL for three unforgettable days of cutting-edge research, ancient mysteries, and energetic exploration.

Now in its 6th installment, the 2025 conference will feature the U.S. debut of Italy's renowned Khafre Project researchers, Dr. Armando Mei and Dr. Filippo Biondi, who are set to unveil breakthrough discoveries from beneath Egypt's Giza Plateau.

This international gathering of scientists, visionaries, and seekers continues the legacy first launched in 2016, combining evidence-based science with ancient knowledge to explore how pyramid energy impacts health, consciousness, and the environment.

Highlights Include:

- Over 15 expert presenters in science, sacred geometry, archaeology, energy consciousness, and ancient civilizations
- Dr. Filippo Biondi's remote sensing research and the role of Synthetic Aperture Radar in uncovering ancient secrets
- Dr. Armando Mei's historical analysis of the Khafre Complex and the revolutionary Zep Tepi dating theory
- Private workshop day (Sept. 29) for those seeking in-depth access to the Italian research team
- Live demonstrations, healing sessions, and marketplace offerings

Vendor applications are now open, with booths available for pyramids, pyramid tools, wellness services, books, art, and more. Sponsorship opportunities offer brand exposure to a global audience passionate about science, mystery, and planetary wellbeing.

And what better place to host this exploration of pyramid energy than at the Gold Pyramid House itself one of the world's most recognized pyramid structures, offering attendees a chance to experience its power first-hand.

Don't Miss This Transformational Event!
