

Voting

If a Chair calls a Committee Meeting then any plot holders present will have been invited by the chairman in the role of observer only and will not have a vote.

If the meeting is a specific Plot Holders Meeting, AGM or EGM then plot holders will have a vote.

Above all the Committee must act as laid down in the Constitution.

To make changes to the Constitution requires an AGM or EGM.

It is important that plot holders are aware of the rules of any meeting that they attend before the meeting and these rules are adhered to.