JESUS COULD NOT LIVE WITHOUT YOU, SO WHERE HE IS YOU ARE ALSO

The Passion Translation publishes at least four verses for living joined with Jesus Christ. 1) Co-crucified: "And if we were co-crucified with the Anointed One, we know that we will also share in the fullness of His life," Rom. 6:8. 2) Co-buried: "Or have you forgotten that all of us who were immersed into union with Jesus, the Anointed One, were immersed into union with His death? Sharing in His death by our baptism means that we were co-buried with Him, so that when the Father's glory raised Christ from the dead, we were also raised with Him." 3) Co-resurrected: "We have been co-resurrected with Him so that we could be empowered to walk in the freshness of new life. For since we are permanently grafted into Him to experience a death like His, then we are permanently grafted into Him to experience a resurrection like His and the new life that it imparts," Rom. 6:3-5. 4) Co-seated: "He raised us up with Christ the exalted One, and we ascended with Him into the glorious perfection and authority of the heavenly realm, for we are now co-seated as one with Christ!" Eph. 2:6. Never wonder where Jesus is again. He is in you. You are in Him!

GOD ANOINTED ELIHU WITH HOLY SPIRIT TO RELEASE CO-PERCEPTION

Elihu confirms having co-perception with Holy Spirit and publicly acknowledges it in Job 33:1-4, (Voice). Elihu: "So now, Job, listen closely to my words; lend an ear to my speeches. Wait for it! I am about ready to part my lips; even now, my tongue begins to stir within my mouth. My words emerge from a heart of integrity; my lips express their knowledge with sincerity. God's Spirit has fashioned me and the breath of the Highest One imparts life to me." In verses 23-28, Elihu gives Job the Word of the Lord under the unction of the Spirit of God on how to regenerate and recover all, even his youth. "If there is a heavenly messenger at one's side, a mediator, even just one out of the thousand in his regime of God's messengers, to proclaim what is right for that person according to God, And to be gracious to him and to say, 'Spare this one from descending into the pit; I have found a ransom that will save his life! Then his skin will be renewed, as smooth and fresh as a child's, and he will be restored to the vim and vigor of his youth.' He will make his appeal to God, and God will grant acceptance; he will see God's face and shout with joy, knowing God has restored his right standing. Then he comes to his fellow humans and sings out, "I sinned and perverted what I knew to be right, but God has not repaid me what I deserved. He has instead paid that ransom and spared me from descending into the pit and my life now sees the light." The anointing rests on God's Word so it can't come back void.

CO-PERCEPTION IS THE VERY INTELLECT OF JESUS, THE MIND OF CHRIST

In Heb. 9:13-15 (KJV), in Greek "conscience" is defined as "co-perception." "For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your "conscience" from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause He is the Mediator of the New Testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance." The Passion Translation zeros on hosting Christ's perceptions in 1 Corinthians 2:16. "For Who has ever intimately known the mind of the Lord Yahweh well enough to become His counselor? Christ has, and we possess Christ's perceptions." Yes, we have the mind of Christ. With the experience of the New Birth, Holy Spirit joins you to the very intellect of Jesus. Clay Feet's blogpost enlightens you on having a seamless connection with the Spirit of God to host co-perception. "First of all, I discovered this means that conscience is a part of me that accesses another perception not of my own to join with mine to make it more complete. In fact, as I went deeper into the roots of this word I found that it is a combination of two things. First is coming to understand something with the assistance of the other consciousness that makes up the co part. Conscience is the uniting of my perception with God's perception. Then the word includes the idea of receiving clandestine information or to be privy to important missing information that makes my perceptions much more complete. This act of uniting is also an important aspect of the meaning of this word. The union is a very close union that denotes companionship, resemblance, possession, becoming an instrumentality and all of this to create completeness. This apparently is primarily for the purpose of having a more perfect understanding or perception that would be impossible of myself." Maintaining sweet communion preserves Jesus' mind as your mind all the time.

Thought for Transformation

Jesus made ample space for you as His honored recipient of God's glory. Then God's gracious style would never be cramped. John 17:11; 21-23, (KJV) is Jesus undisputable evidence in prayer to His Father. "And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep through Thine own name those whom Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, as We are. That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us: that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me. And the glory which Thou gavest Me I have given them; that they may be one, even as We are one: I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that Thou hast sent Me, and hast loved them, as Thou hast loved Me." You are now co-glorified with Jesus: "Having determined our destiny ahead of time, He called us to Himself and transferred His perfect righteousness to everyone He called. And those who possess His perfect righteousness He co-glorified with His Son!" Romans 8:30 (TPT). Glorious glory!

Refuse to Share God's Glory

"...He's not remote; He's near. We live and move in Him, can't get away from Him! One of your poets said it well: 'We're the God-created.' Well, if we are the God-created, it doesn't make a lot of sense to think we could hire a sculptor to chisel a god out of stone for us, does it? Acts 17: 27-29, (MSG).
