No. 120970073

CITATION

To: Greg Reynolds

You will please take note an investigation has been conducted pursuant to ORS 426.070. Following the investigation, the court concluded there is probable cause to believe you are a mentally ill person. The nature of the information filed concerning you and the specific reasons you are believed to be mentally ill are described in a copy of the notice of mental illness, attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof.

You are ordered to appear before the judge of the above court at 9:00 A.M. on 24 September 2012 in Room #220 of the Multnomah County Courthouse, Portland, Oregon, at which time a hearing will be conducted to determine if you are mentally ill.

You have a right to representation by legal counsel at the hearing. If you are unable to afford legal counsel, you have a right to have legal counsel appointed for you. If you request, you have a right to have legal counsel appointed immediately. You have a right to subpoena witnesses in your behalf to the hearing.

This citation is issued and served upon you pursuant to the order of the above court.

TO: The Multnomah County Sheriff or the Community Mental Health Program Director or Designee:

This Court having found that there is probable cause to believe failure to take the allegedly mentally ill person into custody pending the hearing to determine whether or not the person is mentally ill would pose serious harm or danger to the person or to others;

You are hereby commanded to take the above-named allegedly mentally ill person into your custody and to produce the person at the hour of 9:00 a.m. on 24 September 2012, in Room 220 of the Multnomah County Courthouse.

DATED this 9/21/2012

CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE

****NOTE - OREGON REVISED STATUTES SECTION 426.140 PROVIDES:

(1) No person, not incarcerated upon a criminal charge, who has been adjudged a mentally ill person or one against whom commitment proceedings have been instituted shall be confined in any prison, jail or other enclosure where those charged with a crime or a violation of a municipal ordinance are incarcerated, unless the person represents an immediate and serious danger to staff or physical facilities of a hospital or other facility approved by the division for the care, custody and treatment of the person.

(2) No allegedly mentally ill person who has been taken into custody shall be confined, either before or after the commitment hearing without an attendant in direct charge of him; and, if not confined in a community hospital, the sheriff or community mental health program director having the person in his custody shall select some suitable person to act as attendant in quarters suitable for the comfortable, safe and humane confinement of the person and approved by the division.
