Re: Executive Clemency Application of GREG MICHAEL REYNOLDS

Dear Governor Kitzhaber:

My office has received a copy of the Executive Clemency Application of Greg Michael Reynolds dated September 19, 2001. He applied earlier in January, 1995 for clemency, as well. Enclosed is a copy of that application and of police reports regarding the original incident. I note only that Mr. Reynolds version of events in his current application differs significantly from what he tendered in 1995 and still more significantly from that indicated in the police reports.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

We have received your letter and we are sorry to hear about the difficulties you are having. Unfortunately, the ACLU is not in a position to help you in this matter.

This response is in no way meant to reflect any judgment on the merits of your case. The ACLU is a private, non-profit organization that seeks to preserve and extend constitutional rights and privileges. Given our limited resources and the volume of requests that we receive, we do not, as a general rule, represent individuals in criminal cases.

If you wish to pursue your case, you should contact a private attorney. Your state's Bar Association should be able to provide you with the name of an attorney who practices in the appropriate field. If you cannot afford private counsel, you should contact a legal services organization.

Again, we regret that we cannot be of more assistance with your situation. Best of luck in resolving your difficulties. We are returning your materials in case you wish to send them elsewhere.

Sincerely,

National ACLU

Dear Mr. Reynolds,

On January 14, 2004, this office received a website appeal referral for the above-referenced case. We checked the Oregon Judicial Information Network (OJIN) and learned that the judgment was entered in this case on February 18, 1996. A notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days of the entry of judgment. Clearly, we are well beyond the 30-day statutory period for filing a notice of appeal, and this office can not assist you on appeal.

Incidentally, our records show that your case referral was purportedly made in January by attorney Mark C. Cogan. Yet, Mr. Cogan's office reports that it did not refer the case to this office.

Sincerely,

PETER GARTLAN

Re: Possible Legal Representation

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

It was a pleasure to make your acquaintance and review your possible legal claims. However, I am writing to inform you that this firm will not be able to represent you in any legal matter relative to your recent inquiry. Our decision is not based on any determination that there is no case here, but rather on our determination that it simply would not be economically feasible for us to proceed on your behalf based upon the estimate of time necessary to be expended for a successful prosecution of this matter and a reasonable expectation of recovery.

Please remember that by deciding not to pursue this matter on your behalf, we are indicating a matter of our opinion, only, and another attorney or law firm looking at the same fact situation and the same circumstances might come to a different conclusion. Therefore, we urge you to attempt to seek other opinions in this regard by talking to other attorneys or law firms.

It is important for you to realize that there is a Statute of Limitations governing cases such as this, and therefore, if you do intend to proceed with your possible case, we urge you to consult another attorney or law firm as quickly as possible since you have only a limited time within which to act. NOTE: Failure to file the lawsuit within the applicable Statute of Limitations will forever bar your case no matter how meritorious it would have been.

Thank you for calling and considering my firm. If I can be of assistance in the future, kindly advise.

Very truly yours,

FIEGER, FIEGER, KENNEY & JOHNSON, P.C.

Dear Greg:

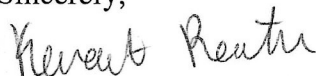

We have received your request for assistance with your case. As you may know, Human Rights Watch is a nongovernmental organization that monitors and promotes the observance of internationally recognized human rights worldwide. Included within our work is an effort to secure respect for the rights of prisoners worldwide, as well as in the U.S.

As an international human rights monitoring and advocacy organization, we are unable to investigate and respond to specific complaints regarding prison conditions in this country. Instead, we concentrate on exposing—via published reports—certain chronic or systemic problems that plague U.S. prisons generally, or individual institutions in particular.

Regarding your situation, I would urge you to contact your local legislators, attorney general, inspector general, state chapter of CURE or ombudsman, if your state has one. We generally find that the more attention one can draw to an inmate's situation, the better one's chances are for improvement. I have enclosed a list of legal and other assistance organizations that are focused on criminal justice issues and may be able to assist you. In addition, should you want to do some of your own legal research, I have enclosed a list of legal self-help resources that may be able to help.

I am sorry that there is not more I can suggest to help you. I apologize, also, for not responding to your request more promptly. Due to the combination of a high volume of requests and internal reorganization, we were unable to reply to you as quickly as we would have liked. Although we cannot be of more service directly to you, information that you and other relatives of prisoners provide us about prison conditions helps us work to promote improvements that will benefit all. I want to thank you, therefore, for getting in touch with us.

Sincerely,

Keramet Reiter

RE: Lane County Circuit Court Case No. 10-93-10439

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

Our office received an online referral from the Court of Appeals today indicating that you wish to file a civil rights action of some sort related to a criminal conviction in Lane County Circuit Court case number 10-93-10439.

Our office cannot assist you in this matter. We handle direct appeals from criminal convictions. The time has long since past to file a direct appeal from your underlying convictions. We cannot represent you in a civil rights suit.

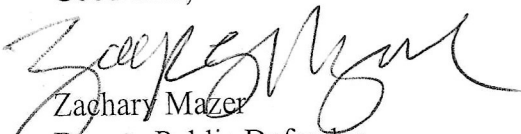

The most I can offer you is the contact information for the Oregon State Bar's Lawyer Referral Service (LRS). You can reach the LRS at 1-800-452-7636, or write to them at

OSB-LRS
ATTN: RIS
PO Box 231935
Tigard, OR 97281

The lawyer referral service will provide you with the names of attorneys in your area who handle civil rights cases. You may then contact those attorneys to see if they can represent you in your suit.

If you have any other questions, you may contact my office directly. We accept collect calls on the first and third Thursdays of each month, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. (we are closed during lunch).

The power to grant executive clemency is one that I take very seriously. I think a Governor's clemency power should be exercised sparingly, and only in the most extraordinary cases.

I have reviewed your application for a pardon, and have considered carefully whether it should be granted. Under the circumstances, I have concluded that a pardon is not warranted. I am therefore denying your application.
