April 2020

A Publication of Calvary Lutheran Church, Moline, Illinois

From the Pastor

As I was leaving my polling place after voting in the Illinois primary I had a brief encounter with a man in the parking lot. I was wearing my clerical collar, so he knew I was clergy of some sort. He said to me something like, “Do you suppose that God is telling us something?”

There really was not an opportunity to have a discussion, so I just responded, “I’m sure God is with us through whatever this is.”

I suspect that his comment might have come from the school of thought that the current coronavirus pandemic is some sort of warning or punishment from God – that God has sent another plague on humanity because of our sinfulness.

I firmly believe that such an understanding is completely contrary to the message of Easter.

In the Easter story from Matthew (Matthew 28: 1-10, that we will hopefully hear in congregational worship on Easter Sunday), Mary Magdalene and the other Mary go to the tomb of Jesus on the first day of the week. As they approach the tomb an earthquake rattles the ground at their feet and the stone in front of the tomb is rolled away.

Now, I’ve never been through an earthquake, but I can only imagine that I would be terrified. The world, it must have seemed, was crashing at their feet. And yet from this devastating event a voice comes to them from a messenger of God. “Do not be afraid: I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said.”

In the midst of an apparent world altering event the word of God to the two Marys is, “Don’t be afraid. God has not abandoned you. Jesus is alive and with you.”

We, too, seem to be living in the midst of a world crashing around our feet. As I write this letter the news about the coronavirus changes hour by hour, and sometimes minute by minute. We don’t know what will ultimately happen with the virus – how many will be infected, how many may die, what it will do to the world’s economy, or to our own individual financial security. It can seem overwhelming.

And in the midst of this “earthquake” known as Covid-19, there is a message that comes to us from God. Do not be afraid. God has not abandoned us. Jesus is with us and always will be. God so loves the world. It is not God’s desire to destroy the world, but to save it.

And so God is with us in the midst of this pandemic. God is with us in the health care workers who are helping the infected. God is with us in the researchers who are seeking a vaccine. God is with us in the people who are reaching out to the vulnerable. God is with us through the friends and neighbors who make phone calls to keep us connected with one another. God is with us.

As Christians we are the presence of God to each other. Jesus is alive through us.

The message of Easter is a simple one. There is nothing in this world – no tomb or virus – that can keep God from us. Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! So, be not afraid.

In Christ,

Pastor Knowles

THANK YOU to Lenten Lunch Providers

We would like to give a BIG Thank you everyone who had signed up to provide Lenten lunches. We are sorry that this year only four members were able to serve. They were Marilyn Gross, Judy Ingerson, Connie Langston and Val Daniel. The food you served was delicious!

During the month of March we have received the following words of thanks....

Dear Friends, Thank you very much for all the greeting cards I received with gifts and the pleasure of your visits. It gave me so much happiness and a Happy Birthday. Merci....

---- Sincerely, Gisele Richardson

The board, staff and volunteers at Churches United of the Quad City Area gratefully acknowledge and accept your most generous gift to our Christ-centered mission and CareLINK ministry. This contribution of $150 to the Moline/East Moline Cluster of Churches helps us to serve families who are in need of assistance with either rent or utilities.

----Blessings, Rev. Dr. Melvin Grimes, Exec. Dir.
And Betsy Vanausdeln, Assoc. Dir.

The board, staff and volunteers at Churches United of the Quad City Area gratefully acknowledge and accept your most generous gift to our Christ-centered mission and ministries. This contribution of $300 to our ministry helps us keep the doors open at Winnie's Place, the only emergency shelter for homeless women and children in the Illinois Quad Cities, food on the shelves of our 25 neighborhood food pantries and on plates at our 2 free hot meal sites.

----Blessings, Rev. Dr. Melvin Grimes, Exec. Dir.
And Betsy Vanausdeln, Assoc. Dir.

ALL DAUGHTER BANQUET Friday, May 8 at 6:00 pm

The banquet will be catered by Jeff's Market. Reservations can be made with Connie Langston, Charlene Lundstrom or the church office. The program for the evening will be "Purses with Purpose" with Deb Bowen as our guest speaker. Women attending are invited to donate a gently-used purse filled with things that women in homeless shelters need. Deb is also the originator of the "Book by Me" project and will be telling us about that too.
