Join our dinosaurs in their fight against bullying by investing in the DinoFriends Token and spreading awareness through our platform.

Together, we can make a difference, protect our young and build a better world for future generations.

Bullying....

Bullying in all of its hideous forms is as old as time, with one individual seeking power over another, usually by intimidating, or even violent means.

Definition: “the behaviour of a person who hurts or frightens someone smaller or less powerful, often forcing that person to do something they do not want to do.” (Definition of bullying from the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary & Thesaurus © Cambridge University Press)

Fact:

One third of the globe's youth is bullied; this ranges from as low as 7% in Tajikistan to 74% in Samoa (<https://www.stopbullying.gov/resources/fact>)

There are a number of worldwide charities and organisations that are dedicated to eradicate bullying from society, but sadly, they are drastically underfunded.

That's why we came up with the idea to help these organisations and our mission is simple:

“To help create a safer and more inclusive online and physical community where everyone can feel safe, valued, included and empowered.”

Join us and our DinoFriends in our fight against bullying by investing in the DinoFriends token and help spread awareness and support through our platform.

Together, we can make a difference and build a better, safer, inclusive world for children and teenagers.

About DinoFriends

In a prehistoric land where dinosaurs roamed freely, a group of friendly and compassionate dinosaurs banded together to address a growing issue in their community - bullying. As they witnessed smaller dinosaurs being picked on by larger, more intimidating ones, they knew they had to take action to create a safer and more harmonious environment for all.

Led by the wise and gentle Brontosaurus, the group of friendly dinosaurs began hosting community gatherings to educate their peers about the harmful effects of bullying. Through storytelling and role-playing activities, they taught valuable lessons about empathy, kindness, and standing up for one another.

The Triceratops used their strength and resilience to protect the vulnerable dinosaurs from bullies, acting as fierce defenders of justice.

The Carnotaurus used their strength and fierce will to reach out and provide support to those who were in danger of being bullied.

And the Velociraptors used their quick wit and intelligence to diffuse tense situations and promote understanding among their peers.

Together, the friendly dinosaurs worked tirelessly to stamp out bullying at all levels, setting a powerful example of unity and compassion for their entire community. Through their efforts, they were able to create a culture of respect and acceptance, where every dinosaur felt valued and supported.

As word of their mission spread, neighbouring dinosaur communities began to take notice and follow suit, inspired by the positive impact the friendly dinosaurs were making.

Through their collective efforts, they were able to create a ripple effect of kindness and understanding that extended far beyond their prehistoric land.

With the support of the friendly dinosaurs, bullying eventually became a thing of the past, replaced by a spirit of inclusion and friendship that would endure for generations to come.

And as the sun set on their prehistoric land, the dinosaurs knew that together, they had made a difference that would last a lifetime.
