A heart of gratitude for 25 years of service

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

"Learn to light a candle in the darkest moments of someone's life. Be the light that helps others see; it is what gives life its deepest significance."

For 25 years, the thousands of volunteers, supporters, and partners have believed in author Roy T. Bennett's lovely sentiment: we find deep meaning in service to others.

That is why we make the bold claim that we are Neighbors Helping Neighbors.

Those who come for services find not only food, but compassion and hope.

Those who come to volunteer find not only a way to give of their time in service, but also a way to receive fellowship and community.

Those who support and partner with us find not just a way to impact our community and neighborhood, but a way to be part of a movement that is making the world a better place for all of us.

All of us, together, are lighting the way forward. We have for 25 years. With your help, and the support of our neighborhood, we will keep on for at least 25 more!

 and grateful

In a survey conducted this spring, 95% of those who came for services reported being "satisfied" or "very satisfied" with our services

The same survey revealed the number one reason people choose to come to THCA is the good, nutritious foods we give.

The number two reason is our friendly volunteers.

Here are a few notes of gratitude from our neighbors:

"Thank you for the good memories you helped to create."

"Thank you for today. I was so excited, especially about the fresh produce."

"Thank you for caring for those who need a helping hand."

"Thank you everyone for contributing to this awesome blessing."

Hear from some of our long-serving volunteers (over 10 years serving):

"This service means so much to me. It is all about community and sharing love. I am grateful that this place is here for the community, and for the way it changes hearts and lives, including mine." Barbara Sillay

"I am so grateful for THCA. I love my

me." Melanie Goins

We serve out of a heart of gratitude to light the way

The world can be a confusing, disheartening place at times. But, here in our corner of the neighborhood, we practice gratitude because we are thankful for one another, thankful to be able share food and hope, thankful to know we are not alone. With your support, we have been lighting the way to a better world for 25 years, and we will for at least 25 more.
