Building Our Community... your gift enables us to sustain families and individuals most in need.

We want to start by thanking those who have supported THCA as a donor of dollars, food and clothing, and, just as importantly, a donor of time. Virtually all of the work that we do to feed the hungry is performed by dozens of volunteers each week. From packing boxes of food to cooking meals to picking up deliveries of food to, well, just about everything! Simply, thank you.

That's why your gift is so important- it sustains our organization and enables us to continue to do the work of supporting families and individuals in our community who are hungry and who suffer from food insecurity. Virtually every dollar that is donated goes directly to our programs to feed the hungry and the homeless, supply clothing to those in need, and to provide other services to the most vulnerable in our area.

And our services are needed more than ever. The news headlines almost daily report rising food prices- especially for the kind of fresh food and proteins we supply our clients each and every week. According to a recent report from one United Nations Food and Agricultural agency food costs were up over 31% over the same period only a year ago. That's 31% in one year. The hard choices families are often forced to make between food, shelter, medicine, and other essential needs is a key reason why our mission is so critical to sustaining families living right in our area.

This year please consider giving a sustaining, monthly gift to THCA. A gift that will help us sustain vulnerable families and individuals.

According to our nation's largest domestic food relief organization, Feeding America, 1.2 million Georgians are facing hunger. One third of those are children. And at THCA 50% of the recipients of our services through the food pantry are children in our immediate DeKalb County area. Please support our annual campaign to feed the hungry, the homeless, and families suffering from food insecurity.
