A place to serve on the front lines of Hunger and Food Insecurity

Alfred and JoAnn Holston are Pastors of Hope Xpress Community Church, active volunteers, AND members of the THCA Board of Directors. Here is what they have to say about why:

"When we moved back to the Atlanta area, our desire was to engage on the front lines to help make a positive impact in the area of food insecurity. We have seen the face of hunger rapidly change from our earlier work in the Washington, DC area with the unhoused. Toco Hills Community Alliance has provided a collaborative space for us where faith-based communities can pool their resources to make a difference in the lives of the under-employed, unhoused, veterans and others facing food insecurity. The work we are doing goes a long out the tenets of our faith as we seek to bring others into the Beloved Community"

Each and every week, THCA serves hundreds of vulnerable families with children, seniors, the unhoused, veterans and so many others. People who often work hard but can't make it all work on meager wages, what with skyrocketing housing costs, inflationary health care rates, higher costs for utilities and fuel, AND increasing prices for basic necessities like food. Toco Hills Community Alliance is truly on the front lines helping maintain our community by supporting its most vulnerable citizens.

We are asking for your support to help meet the continuing demand for our services to the hungry and the homeless. Please consider joining the Board of Directors in making a gift to our annual campaign. Here's how:

Your monthly support as a Sustaining Donor will really help us as we prepare to meet the growing needs of the hungry and the homeless in north DeKalb.

Each week several dozen volunteers join the front lines to unload trucks of donated food supplies, set up shelves of fresh food, pack family food boxes (and backpacks for our unhoused friends), cook meals, sort

Please support this front line effort by supporting our annual campaign to feed the hungry, the homeless, and families suffering from food insecurity. You can help us by clicking the DONATE button below.
