

You're helping make a difference!

The attempt by the Neighbors West-Northwest coalition to ban me from their meetings is not over, but the tide appears to have turned. New leadership has taken over, and I was able to participate in the organization's last meeting just before Christmas.

Those behind the campaign against freedom of the press had to be aware that the people they purport to represent did not support the ban. I have heard from so many people, including many I had never met, about their disapproval of the ban and their support for me and the NW Examiner. No doubt those imposing the ban heard it too.

Public opinion is powerful. Informed citizens can make a difference. With people like you standing behind me, we can keep the news flowing.
