

Meet Naiya

Hi! Welcome to my House

As the girl next door, I love to show my hospitality and be a friendly neighbor. I also love to meet new people, so I'm glad you're here!

About Me

I am a young woman who is passionate about nature. I even have a degree in it. I grew up in a lower-middle class family and have supported myself for about a decade now. I'm easy-going and love deep conversations about science. I enjoy exploring the many sides of my personality, from tomboy to fashionista.

My Interests

There really isn't much I am not into. In general, I love being a submissive, bratty slut who gets punished and used. My more intense kinks are gang bang/water-sports. Curious about exploring more of my Dom side.

Why I Started

Like most horny girls, I began sending nudes long ago to boys I liked in school. I knew I had a sexy body and which angles best captured it. I enjoyed getting the attention and validation, but also arousing someone from behind a phone. Once platforms became available to share my talents with others, I excitedly dove in.

Fun Facts

My best friend is my husky

I love to cook and try new foods.

I once drove across the country. Solo.

I am a complete dork about evolutionary genetics & behaviors.
