By Ken Martin

As I sit to write this article on Christmas Eve, both Mustangs and New Year 2026 are on my mind. I did a Google search about those two topics and AI showed me this! Enjoy!

A Mustang New Year's Wish

The snow fell soft on Christmas Eve,
But Santa felt a slight reprieve,
"My sleigh is old, the reindeer slow, 2026
I need some real horsepower to go!"
He spied a 'Stang, a shiny red,
With chrome wheels gleamin' in his head.
He hopped right in, the engine roared,
A V8 symphony adored!

Through frosty air, the tires spun,
"This New Year's ride," he said, "has begun!"
No silent night, just booming sound,
As horsepower shook the winter ground.
He left the North Pole far behind,
A turbocharged future to find!

So as the clock strikes twelve and rings,
May your New Year bring awesome things!
With speed and joy in every mile,
A Mustang's spirit, and a wide, bright smile!
Happy New Year! From the open road's call,
May your year be epic, for one and for all!

MUSTANG FACTS

DID YOU KNOW:

The Mustang almost went front-wheel drive during the 1980's? Ford and Mazda had a relationship and with front wheel drive becoming more & more popular, the Mustang was almost replaced with the Mazda coupe. However, the very idea caused a massive letter-writing campaign that shut that nonsense down.

The 1st Mustang, often called the 1964 1/2, wasn't ready in April of 1964 when it was introduced. Ford doesn't even officially recognize the 1964 1/2 car, instead calls the first Mustang a 1965. The 1964 1/2 is just an early-production model. Although, Ford does recognize April 17, 1964 as the anniversary date of the Mustang.

A LITTLE JOKE

A Jewish Doctor, and Indian accountant and a lawyer were driving in the country when their car suddenly broke down.

They saw a nearby farm house and knocked on the door, hoping to use the phone.

Due to the late hour, a tow truck was unable to come until the morning. The farmer was generous enough to allow them to stay the night, but he cautioned that there were only two beds in the guest house, so one of them would have to use the bed located in the barn.

The three men went to bed, with the Jewish doctor volunteering to sleep in the barn. An hour goes by and there is a rapid knock on the door of the guest house - it is the Jewish doctor who says "There is a pig in the barn, due to my religious beliefs, I refuse to sleep in there with the pig".

The Indian accountant volunteers to take his place in the barn, and everyone goes back to sleep. Another hour goes by and once again there is a rapid knock on the door of the guest house. This time it is the Indian accountant, who says "There is a cow in the barn, and due to my religious beliefs I refuse to sleep in there with the cow".

After a brief discussion, the lawyer volunteers to sleep in the barn, and everyone goes back to sleep. Three hours go by, and there is a tremendous amount of knocking at the door of the guest house.

The two men rush out of bed and quickly run to open the door - and to their surprise it's the cow and the pig!

CMC GENERAL MEETING DECEMBER 6, 2025

Meeting at Nando Mexican Grill was opened by Ken. Officers and board members present were Ken, Randy, JoAnn, Alyce, Joice, Maureen and Kristen.

New members Brent Mills and Judy McOstrich were introduced and told everyone about their 1965 Mustang black convertible. Joseph Yunk, recent new member, talked about his 2002 Roush.

Ken thanked all the members of the board and officers for their contributions and all the work they did for the 2025 year. JoAnn then introduced Member of the Year as Maureen, the pick of the club for 2025. Newsletter was her biggest project for the year. She was presented with a nice gift from the club.

CHAPMAN FORD DECEMBER 8, 2025

Randy met with Steve Countryman, General Mgr and Michael Brill, Club Rep with Chapman Ford to present them with our appreciation plaque from the Club. Steve wants to have it mounted in a good visible area of the dealership for all to see, as they were very appreciative of the plaque. He stated they want to be our sponsor for many years to come. What a great sponsor they have been in for us in 2025!
