Bomba Rice

The Heart of Paella's Legacy and Biodiversity

Indulge in a rice cultivated where the paella was invented. Only 10 kilometers from Valencia you will find the Albufera Natural Park, a Mediterranean ecosystem with unspoilt dune beaches, forests and rice fields.

Bomba rice, known for its superior quality and unique ability to absorb flavors while maintaining a firm texture, is popular in Spanish cuisine, particularly in dishes like paella.

Cultivated in Spain, Bomba rice's short grains and high starch content contribute to its exceptional creamy consistency, making it a sought-after choice for creating delectable and flavorful rice-based dishes that delight food enthusiasts worldwide.
