

THE KEEL/KISS KONNECTION KONTINUES ON THE 2026 KISS KRUISE –

“LANDLOCKED IN VEGAS NOVEMBER 13-15

The band that gave you “The Right To Rock” is back. 2026 marks the 40th anniversary of their iconic album “The Final Frontier” and KEEL is planning to celebrate that, and their close connection to the hottest band in the land, KISS, with an exclusive performance at the “KISS KruiSE -Landlocked in Vegas” event November 13-15.

Their reunion, which began in 2009 to commemorate the band’s 25th anniversary, was a triumphant success with blistering shows across the US and Europe and the release of their acclaimed “Streets Of Rock & Roll” comeback album. Multiple Monsters Of Rock Cruise voyages, appearances at M3, Rocklahoma, the Frontiers Festival in Milan and many other high-profile events served to complete their return.

Most recently, the band released the single “Moving Target” (2024), adding to a catalog that has sold two million albums; all three of the band’s 80s releases – two of which were produced by Gene Simmons – charted in Billboard’s Hot 100 while Keel shared the bill with heroes like Aerosmith, Van Halen, Motley Crue, Dio, Joan Jett, Triumph and other heavyweights. Some tour highlights from the band’s heyday were the Northeast US leg of Bon Jovi’s epic “Slippery When Wet” tour (which included three sold-out nights at Madison Square Garden) and their 1986 headline tour of Japan.

Now 40 years later, classic Keel members Marc Ferrari, Bryan Jay, Dwain Miller, and Ron Keel, along with bassist Geno Arce are again proving we’ll always have the right to rock. “The chance to come back one more time for the fans, and for each other, as part of this epic event celebrating KISS is a thrilling opportunity for us,” proclaims Ron. “We’ll see you in Las Vegas.”
