WELCOME TO MORNING GLORY

Welcome Back!

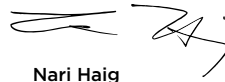

We are so thrilled to welcome treasured, seasoned artists and volunteers back to the Morning Glory Art Fair. A hearty hello to our new friends who are experiencing this long-storied fair for the first time. In every form, art awakens our senses to the world, sparking untapped creativity inside us.

Wisconsin Craft, the nonprofit organization that puts on the Morning Glory Art Fair, has provided education and connected artists, while continuing the tradition of advocating and celebrating fine craft in Wisconsin communities and the broader region, for over 100 years. We are proud to have many of our artists' works represented at this show and you'll see the Wisconsin Craft designation next to their names.

Thanks so much for supporting our artists!

2022 SHOW HIGHLIGHTS

At Home in the Deer District

Morning Glory Art Fair is returning to the Deer District for the Second year. With this centrally located large space on the plaza and the street to spread out, as well as a nice handful of eating establishments on hand, you'll find a stimulating experience on the grounds of the NBA Milwaukee Bucks' Fiserv Forum.

2022 ARTIST AWARDS

Judges will circulate on Saturday morning to choose this year's prestigious Artist Awards.

Two judges will visit each booth individually and together select the award winners. Winners will be announced late in the day Saturday with a celebratory visit. Look for artist winners' ribbons and bright certificates on display in their booths later that day and Sunday.

Award Judges:

Michelle Zjala Winter: Jeweler, educator & former gallery owner from Green Bay, WI

Shelby Keefe: Multi-award winning oil painter and art educator from Milwaukee, WI

Cash Awards:

Best in Show - One Award

Award of Excellence - Four Awards

Award of Merit - Four Awards

Annette Hirsh Memorial Award for Excellence in Jewelry - One Award

Special thanks to our three Jurors who judged our artists' applications for show acceptance this year back in March.

Peg Lowry: Jeweler and co-owner of Blue Dolphin House and BDH Studio in Ephraim, WI

Christopher Davis-Benavides: Artist and former professor of Ceramics at UW Milwaukee

Larry Sanders: Photographer and owner of Sanders Visual Images

NEW FOR 2022: FEATURED BIPOC ARTISANS

WI Craft is sponsoring a new tent to feature local BIPOC Artists from Southeastern Wisconsin. This year we partnered with LUNA - Latinas Unidas En Las Artes.

LUNA began after an honest conversation between co-founders Katie Avila Loughmiller and Gabriela Riveros. Concerned about the lack of Latinx representation they were seeing in Milwaukee art organizations, they decided to carve out space in this city's art scene. Together they began to build a group of artists that grew into a collective with over 30 members. Since 2017, LUNA has curated a multitude of exhibitions, community events, held workshops, created public art, and elevated the platform for Latinx artists in our community. In 2019, after being selected as a Brew City Match recipient, LUNA turned into an official LLC and opened a temporary location on Cesar Chavez Drive.

Visit Booth #92 to see the work of artists Josseline Castillo and Whitney Salgado.

Emerging Artists: UWM Peck School of the Arts

Part of Wisconsin Craft's non-profit mission is to encourage and support the next generation of artists working in the fine craft fields. For the second year, WI Craft is sponsoring the UWM Emerging Artist booth, featuring the work of six art students whose media include ceramics, sculpture, printmaking, fiber arts, painting, jewelry & metalsmithing. These artists proudly represent the outstanding Peck School of the Arts - Art & Design program.

Visit Booth #89 to see how their skill and enthusiasm shows in their work:

Aullen Anderson: Sculpture

Ashley Bohne: Fiber & Jewelry

Chance Gordon: Ceramics & Jewelry & Metalsmithing

Diane Moore: Ceramics, Painting & Drawing

Zinta Jauntirāns Vogel: Printmaking & Book Arts
