“Quality To Last A Lifetime ... And It Shows”

Welcome to the 2021 PARADE of homes

Welcome to the 2021 Golden Sands Homebuilders Association Parade of Homes. This year we have 12 featured homes built by 8 of the most reputable, cutting edge builders. Please come and enjoy these homes and use them as a resource guide for your dreams. This is also the 2nd year we have hosted a fall Parade rather than in the spring as in the past. We like this change and feel that it allows ample time for collaboration to get projects ready for the upcoming spring.

When building a custom home there becomes a distinct bond between the homeowners and the builder/subcontractors. Members of the Golden Sands Homebuilders Association show that they are not only dedicated to their craft but are committed to their profession. As a group we support many local charities and offer scholarships to a lot of young adults looking to better themselves. We also have monthly educational meetings to keep us up to date and at the top of our class.

There has been a lot of concern in our industry over the past 18 months of rising lumber prices. While prices across the board (and in many other industries) have increased things have started to level out or come down in price. I hope this will be a continuing trend and that we get back to business as usual in the near future.

I would personally like to thank all the sponsors, associate members, and the homeowners that allowed their house to be showcased in this year's parade. Enjoy your weekend. Take your time and visit as many homes as you can. See the difference of a home built by a member of the Golden Sands Home Builders Association.

HOW DOES LUXURY HARDWOOD FLOORING COMPARE TO OTHER HIGH-END MATERIALS?

article taken from www.builddirect.com

Are you curious about how luxury hardwood flooring compares to other high-end materials? Floors are a primary part of every home's design. It's one of the first things new homeowners look for when buying their first home, and when they're ready to make some improvements, they typically start with the floors.

Hardwood is an age-old, perfect choice for flooring that has never gone out of style. Whether you're a contractor or DIYer, hardwood floors are an elegant pick for your next flooring installation.

Advantages of Real Hardwood

Hardwood floors aren't the only luxury option, but they might be the most popular. They aren't just used for aesthetic appeal, although it is a huge plus. They're also elegant, durable, long-lasting, and provide additional value to the home. Here are a few of the advantages of natural hardwood floors:

Warm, Natural Feel

Hardwood floors allow homeowners to make their rooms feel cozy, warm and inviting. When you step into a room with hardwood floors, you immediately feel more comfortable. That's the power of this hardwood. Simply put, hardwood floors just feel like home.

Paired with the right décor, they can make a room feel rustic and breathtaking or modern and elegant.

The warm and natural feel of hardwood fits into any aesthetic, making it an incredibly flexible flooring option.

Elegant Design

For any homeowner with an eye for interior design, hardwood floors are an obvious choice. Whether your desired home style is Colonial, Craftsman, or Traditional, hardwood floors are the perfect addition to a designer's vision. They seamlessly blend into any interior design aesthetic and always add a touch of elegance and

Natural Wood Grain Variation

There's nothing quite like knowing that your floors are completely natural and have come from outdoors. Unlike the printed alternatives, hardwood isn't pretending, it's the real thing.

Wood grain variation is a natural property of wood. When a tree is cut into boards, its growth rings appear in patterns. These patterns tell the story of the tree's environment. In a way, they tell the story of its life. It's a lot like a fingerprint. Natural hardwood has personality and uniqueness that can't be duplicated, which definitely sets it apart.

Added Home Value

Some experts in the real estate industry report that a home with hardwood floors could sell for up to 10% more than an identical home without hardwood. That's a lot of value!

Many homeowners and, specifically, homebuyers are on the hunt for a house with natural hardwood floors. This uptick in value is a direct result of supply and demand. If a house has hardwood floors, more people will want to bid on it, ultimately driving up the home's value.

Long-Lasting

Hardwood floors are durable, which means they're less likely to be damaged and need repairs. They're easier to clean, which means they require less maintenance. Yes, they will need to be recoated every so often, but hardwood floors can last for generations if taken care of properly.

Can Be Refinished

Refinishing wood is an incredible option that isn't possible with other high-end materials. Due to constant foot traffic and everyday wear-and-tear, floors may start to appear dull and scuffed. With other types of flooring materials, you have to replace them entirely, but that's not the case with natural hardwood.

Refinishing hardwood floors can make them look brand new and freshly installed. This is a quality that is entirely unique to hardwood.

How Does Hardwood Compare to Other Materials?

There's no denying that hardwood floors are elegant, long-lasting, and can add incredible value to homes. What are other high-end flooring options available on the market? And more importantly, how do they compare to hardwood?

Let's take a look:

Vinyl

Vinyl floors are a great high-end flooring option that competes well with natural hardwood. One of the benefits of vinyl floors is water resistance. Because vinyl is water-resistant (or waterproof in most cases), it can be installed anywhere, including kitchens, bathrooms, laundry rooms, and basements. This isn't the case with hardwood. With hardwood, water must be removed quickly to avoid permanent damage. Vinyl is also less expensive than hardwood, which is an essential benefit if you're on a budget.

Laminate

Laminate is a popular option among flooring experts. It is scratch-resistant and water-resistant, so it's much more durable than hardwood flooring. It's also a relatively cheap alternative to hardwood that provides a natural wood look.

Engineered Hardwood

Engineered hardwood is an incredible innovation that looks and feels like real hardwood but doesn't require all the maintenance. Both options have very long lives, though hardwood will last longer if properly maintained. Engineered hardwood is usually less expensive than natural hardwood, so it's a friendlier option for smaller budgets.

Make the Choice that's Right for Your Budget and Goals.

Hardwood floors are luxurious, elegant, and long-lasting. They fit into any design aesthetic and create cozy and inviting atmospheres. Homeowners love them, and they're incredibly popular among new home buyers.

Unfortunately, hardwood floors aren't for every home, every homeowner, or every budget. Vinyl, laminate, and engineered hardwood are all high-end options that look amazing and offer great benefits. Homeowners should choose the option that's right for them.

Central Door Solutions is a Service and Installation company of overhead doors and dock equipment located in Beautiful Plover, WI. Established in 2003 by Bruce Woyak, Central Door has grown into the largest overhead door dealer in Wisconsin. Central Door has done this based on small town values and continued focus on quick and reliable service. Co-owner Chris Brooks stated "With quality modern products, Central Door provides today's customer with all they need to make educated decisions". He also points out that tools like a large show room and online virtual simulator set them apart from others in the door industry. The ability to "try on" new door styles on your current home by just making a few clicks on your computer is the convenience today's busy world is craving, adds Co-owner Bruce Woyak. Central Door Solutions Provides their customers with 4 Major door lines that gives them the largest selection in Central Wisconsin. Their trained staff of over 150 years of overhead door experience can assist you in making the technical and cosmetic choices that no box store has the ability to provide. Brooks added "with 40 - 70% of a home's front façade being the garage door, a modern upgrade in style can be the most cost effective way to add curb appeal to your home". They also pointed out the energy savings a modern door can add with R-values over 20 now available. Whether it's your home, business, farm or industrial needs. Central Door Solutions indeed does have the solutions to your needs. Take the opportunity to visit them in 7 different homes during the 2021 Golden Sands Home Builders Parade of Homes.
