

Submission Criteria for Artwork Commissioned for sale to the Sackets Harbor Arts Center

- The artist must be a member in good standing.
- The Sackets Harbor Arts Center Artwork Committee will jury items up for consideration to be placed for sale in the Sackets Harbor Arts Center (Arts Association of Northern NY).
- The committee will base their decision on originality, creativity, quality, presentation, and overall impression.
- All artworks must be the artist's own work. If a piece was done for a class, it must be labeled as such.
- All gift shop items must be handcrafted by the artist.
- Member artists must present an example of their work or clear photos of the artwork to be considered. Photos can be submitted by text 315-771-5029 or email to.
- The committee will consider the artwork and notify member artists of their decision as soon as possible.

** This will apply to new items from existing members that are different from the artist's normal consigned items.

For example: Eileen has watercolor paintings on consignment. Eileen wants to bring in fabric items. Eileen would need to bring in examples or submit photos of the fabric items for consideration by the jury committee.
