Meet Our 2020 Judge
Laura Desmond

Laura Desmond is the Education Specialist at the Frederic Remington Art Museum, where she designs educational programs to expand and deepen understanding and appreciation of Frederic Remington's work, of art, and of art-making. She assists in the design, research, installation, and presentation of exhibitions at the Museum, and is passionate about inspiring creativity and giving Museum visitors memorable experiences in the visual arts. She has previous Museum experience in collections, exhibitions, and program delivery at the Potsdam Public Museum and at the Richard F. Brush Art Gallery.
