Today, as we gather in worship and remembrance on this Veterans Day, we give thanks for the men and women who have served our nation with courage and devotion. Their sacrifices remind us of the cost of freedom and the deep longing in every human heart for peace.

The song “Let There Be Peace on Earth” speaks to that longing. Written in the 1950s as a prayer for unity, it calls each of us to be instruments of God’s peace—to let peace begin not somewhere distant, but within our own hearts and lives.

As we sing these words today, may we remember that true peace comes from God, and it is through His love working in us that the world can be transformed. Let us honor our veterans not only with gratitude, but also by living as peacemakers—sharing the light of Christ wherever there is darkness or division.
