Weekly Church Announcements – November 8, 2026

From Stewardship and Finance ~ During our stewardship Moment for Mission this morning, Donna is following Susan's look at our past with a look at our present here at CPC.

This morning, Donna is telling her story and sharing why the future of this church is important for the 'Donnas' as yet unknown. Next week, John will talk about making a commitment to the past, present and future of this church.

Today's housekeeping:

- Stewardship Sunday is November 22. Please try to have your 2027 pledge in by that date so we can develop a reasonable budget. Planning the coming year is much, much easier and more accurate the more planned commitment we have. As always, a pledge is not a firm number and no one will ever, ever hold you to the number. Pledge cards are in the pews and in the office. You can put it in the plate or drop it off in the office.
- As briefly mentioned in last week's Moment for Mission, it's important to understand that we can support the many causes we do, like the Burns family, because we are literally here, functioning, active and generous as a church. While we all know that the church is the people and not the building, don't underestimate the cost of keeping this building maintained and welcoming. We love to give money to our favorite causes, but a pledge and regular giving is also needed to keep the lights on, the buildings cleaned and the pastor paid.

A beloved Christmas tradition is returning once again to Community Presbyterian Church. Christmas angels for senior citizens will be available November 15 (a perfect shopping time for remaining holiday extravaganza items), November 22 and November 29. We ask that all wrapped gifts be returned by December 1. Look for instructions and possible gift ideas when you pick up your angels on the given dates. Be an angel – get an angel.

SCRIP NEWS ~ Nancy Case will be collecting your scrip orders today during fellowship and refreshments time. If you have any questions regarding the scrip program or would like to place an order, please contact Nancy Case (201-317-4437 or nocase000@gmail.com) and she will be happy to help you. Don't forget, Christmas is coming and gift cards make wonderful gifts.

If you are interested in helping with Sunday School but have not yet, please reach out to Christy to get the background check paperwork so we can get you on the vetted list of helpers. 908-310-6211 or ycyoung262@gmail.com

If you are available to help, please sign up with the QR Code for the list of dates that I am looking for helpers this fall. As always, I appreciate your help and dedication to helping teach the youth of our church about faith.

Please register your child or children with the QR Code so you can stay informed on all the events that we have throughout the year.

Coffee Hour Sign-up –Thank you to all who sign up to host a coffee hour. December 6 and 13 are still available for anyone who would like to sign up .

CPC Book Club chose Mad Mabel by Sally Hepworth as their next read. The group plans to meet in the Fireplace area of Fellowship Center on Thursday, December 10th at 6:30 p.m. for a discussion of the book. More participants and book suggestions are always welcome. If you have any questions, please contact Joan Stephens (201) 874-1477

Mission Council is collecting special needs for the Chester Mendham Food Pantry for a few weeks. If you would like to help, please focus on one or two of the following items. (These are separate from the Deacons Thanksgiving food bags)

- Chicken Broth
- Turkey or Chicken Gravy (can or jar)
- Parmalat Milk (shelf stable milk)
  - Whole milk or 2% milk
- Plain rice (in bag only)

Presbyterian Women ~ Holiday Extravaganza

Presbyterian Women needs your help setting up for Holiday Extravaganza on Thursday November 12th.

Please come at 10:30 am, we will need tables set up so we can definitely use some men to assist us.

Hopefully it will not take more than 1 hour to arrange the tables, then we can put out the table cloths and start putting out our goods to sell. We can fine tune arranging on Friday.

Bakers! Please drop off your baked goods at the church Friday, November 13th. Cookies sell very well, also breads. We welcome all your treats. Please label items made with nuts. Do not forget, baking containers of all sizes are in the office so help yourself.

Helping hands are needed on Saturday November 14th. Presbyterian Women will need sales help during the Holiday Extravaganza, especially in Baked Goods and craft area in Fellowship Center. Our big shopping rush is 10 am to 1 pm, then it gets quieter until we close at 3 pm. If you can even help for one hour that would be wonderful. If you want to help at 10 am please plan to arrive at 9 am - 9:30 am. Thank you to everyone in advance!

Lunch will be provided at the Holiday Extravaganza in the kitchen for our volunteer workers. We will also have a hot beverage bar set up -- coffee, tea, and cocoa.

CPC Deacons will be selling beautiful luminaries, with battery operated candles, for a fundraiser to support our projects. They are a lovely addition to your Christmas decorations. Thank you to all who helped by donating monetarily to the Deacons or buying items needed for the Thanksgiving Food
