Questions ~ contact any pit crew member; contact the chair of a booth for information about their booth and/or add your name to their help list.

A number of years ago I was in the middle of peach pie baking, 2 pies were in the oven, and I was preparing 2 more pies when I ran out of sugar. William was about 8 or 9 years old; I grabbed Betsy and she and I rushed to ShopRite for a bag of sugar. I told William we would be back ASAP. As I circled the parking lot Betsy ran into the store for the sugar, but unfortunately the check-out line was long. When we pulled into our driveway there was a Chester Police car! While we were getting the sugar, the pies in the oven were spilling hot juice that gave off a slightly burning smell. Ever alert William called 911 thinking the oven was on fire and the police arrived, Luckily a firetruck did not show up, but unfortunately my super nosy neighbor did- wanting to know why the police were there! Of course, my kitchen was a disaster with peeled peaches and flour everywhere and the floor was so sticky with spilled peach juice.
