You are picked up from your hotel by a transportation service and your guide to take you to the fortress of Sacsayhuamán, whose imposing walls offer an impressive panoramic view of Cusco. From there, start your tour by walking to the San Cristóbal viewpoint and descending towards the city's main square. The journey through Cusco's cobblestone streets, steeped in over 500 years of Incan history, blends with the modernity of popular shops and restaurants. Pass through the picturesque sloping street of Siete Borreguitos, named for its traditional use by locals transporting goods and animals, including sheep. Make a stop at the Sapantiana Aqueduct, built during the colonial era, before reaching the Cathedral, the most imposing monument in the Plaza de Armas. Finally, visit the Inca temple of Coricancha, one of the most significant sites dedicated to the worship of the sun. According to ancient chronicles, its walls were covered in gold leaf and adorned with golden representations of nature. After the tour, return to your hotel.

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend comfortable and light clothing for visiting the coastal areas of Peru and warm clothes for the high Andean area. Visitors are not advised to wear sleeveless shirts, shorts, short skirts, or short clothing when visiting religious temples or official buildings. Sunscreen, sunglasses, a hat, and mosquito repellent can be very useful during your stay.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ENVIRONMENTALLY AND CULTURALLY RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

- Do not feed or buy wild animals; always try to keep your distance.

- Avoid buying endemic plants and products derived from endangered species.
- Minimize water use; do not leave faucets or showers running.
- Reduce energy use: turn off lights, air conditioning, and unplug your charger when not in use.
- Reduce plastic use: Choose refillable water and recycle your disposable bottles.
- Avoid the use of sprays, including repellents, suntan lotions, sunscreens, etc.
- Ask permission before taking someone's picture.
- Do not include minors in the photos.
- Respect local beliefs and traditions.
- Respect the indications for the preservation of the material heritage.
