

Good morning, beloved! O righteous people of God, let us praise Him today! Yes, let our hearts be glad in Him who is our Strength, our Peace, our Hope.

"I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some. I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings."

1 Corinthians

9:22b-23 (NLT)

Saint Paul is encouraging all brothers and sisters in the faith here, giving an example of how he reaches out to others with the Gospel. As a people who have been transformed into Christlike-ness and are continuing to grow in faith through His Word and the encouragement of others, we ourselves have the privilege to go and do likewise in the lives of others.

And speaking of privilege, look around you. You are amongst men and women who are deeply passionate about serving your needs and helping you to grow in the faith. Yes, this humble little church of ours is overflowing with love for God and for you. So, dear brothers and sisters, be comforted and encouraged. We are all in this together and the mighty hand of God is upon us. Be challenged also, for there are so many people out there that need you to share Christ's love with them.

May the True Light of the World, Jesus Christ, shine ever so brightly day after day in and through each one of your lives. Amen.
