

From the Pastor's Heart

*O God, lead me in Your righteousness...
Make Your way straight before me.
Psalm 5:8 (paraphrased)*

Dear Ones,

God is good!

God's voice isn't all that difficult to hear. In fact, you almost have to be closing your eyes and stopping your ears to miss it. He sometimes shouts through our pain, whispers to us when we are still and relaxing. Occasionally, He sings to us in a beautiful hymn or song and warns us in the sixty-six love letters He has written to us in Holy Scripture. His Word to us is right there – ink on paper, brought real to us by the work and ministry of the Holy Spirit.

In addition to God's unfailing source of wisdom in His Word, God grants us the blessings of wise counselors, friends, pastors, teachers and mentors who have earned our love and respect throughout the years.

Prayerfully screen what you believe to be the will of God in your interactions with them in their perspectives in accordance what you know in the Word of God.

Be careful and prudent in what you discern as to be the will of God for your life. God will never lead you astray. He uses many ways to speak to you, however, it is His Word and the Word alone, that is the final authority to determine our path in life, and the decisions we make along the way.

Therefore, dear friend, it is imperative that we daily study the Scriptures so that we know what God says to us concerning the life we live as a follower of Jesus. Why not read the Scriptures just now in the Book of Acts 17:10-11. How does this word speak to you?

Peace In Jesus,

Pastor Bill
