

From the Pastor's Heart

*For thus the Lord God... has said,...
"In quietness and trust is your strength."
Isaiah 30:15 (NASB1995)*

Brothers and Sisters,

Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say rejoice!

Some of the most profound mysteries of the Spirit of God are not public or loud or large. Sometimes His most meaningful touch on our lives comes when we are all alone.

We must take the time and make the effort to be alone with God. Find your special sanctuaries where you may walk away from the noise of this world. Be in touch with the evidence of God's creation seldom observed by the busy and harried form of life in which we allow ourselves to be molded. Break away and out of the mind of the modern world. Find the simplicity and profound beauty of God in the flower, the song of the birds, the gentle breezes, the gentle caress of His mighty love in the stillness of things.

Sometimes being alone in God's creation is all that is needed for the scales to be removed from our eyes, and the hardness of our heart to be softened. God is waiting for us to accept His invitation to walk with Him in the great Garden of God in the quiet and secluded places on earth.

Joyfully Serving YOU!
