

From the Pastor's Heart

“How beautiful are the feet of those who preach
The gospel of peace, and who bring glad tidings of good things.” Isaiah 52:7

Saints of God,

Grace and Peace to you!

What do you bring to people from God? Blessings and peace? We are called-out of this present world by God, through Jesus' invitation to “take up our cross daily”, deny self-rule, and follow Him. If we are “in Christ” we must always be available to be whatever He calls us to do – “for Christ.”

Where does Jesus lead us on any given day? To His heart of love for all humanity, to be His hands, His feet, and His heart of love and compassion to all to whom we have interaction. He may call us to seemingly unpleasant tasks or places in which to share His love. In our obedience to follow Him wherever, whenever, and however, Jesus is molding our lives and character into the exact image of His own self.

Each day take time to pray: “Lord, lead me where you desire. Use me as You determine. Place me in the sacred place of my obedience to Your Will and not my will only.” I challenge you to pray this prayer. See how your life will change!

God bless you abundantly!
