About Me

I believe there is healing through community. Community is a word that takes on different meanings to different people. I am open and patient and ready to walk alongside you as you define your community. I was born and raised in Wisconsin. Homeschooling was a big part of my life. I was homeschooled as a child K-12, and now I facilitate my child doing virtual school at home so I can still be a more active part in his daily learning. The homeschooling community was a big part of my growing up. My personal experience with PTSD, CPTSD, anxiety, depression, socialization skills and executive functioning delays gave me some labels in life. I have learned that when I strip away all of the labels, I see an experience. I see an opportunity to grow. I have learned to be gentle with myself. I have learned that being surrounded by my pets and cleaning my house (Yes! I am serious!) is part of my life and accepting that brings me peace. Let's find out what makes you happy and fulfilled.

Lived Experience (Specialty Areas)

Adaptive socialization skills, PTSD, CPTSD, anxiety, depression, skills to enhance poor executive functioning skills, alternative schooling methods parent/student, divorce, single motherhood.

Favorite Past time

I love to get out in nature, and take long walks, mushroom foraging and gardening. I love to read fiction and non-fiction books that expand my way of thinking.
