

Hello! We're still here, we promise!

It's been a chaotic few months to say the least, hence why we've been a little quiet on the newsletters...but we have lots of exciting things planned to kickstart our summer!

If you missed the BIG news, we opened our second shop 'CELESTE' in Holmes Chapel, coffee shop by day and a cocktail & wine bar by night. This means we have 3 businesses to keep us busy, so keep reading for a lowdown on everything we have planned for you, across all 3!

SOME NEWS & A LITTLE REBRAND

As you may have seen on our socials, our beloved chocolatier Claire is sadly leaving us, but we are excited to share the reason why is to begin her own journey into the world of crafting cacao, with her own business @confetti_choc .

You may be wondering, what this means for HALA – cacao – cake – cuisine ? Well...

We have been dabbling in the world of coffee consultancy for a few years, assisting a number of other independents to get the most out of their coffee and equipment, along with opening two of our own speciality cultural coffee shops. Abda herself has been in the game for over 6 years now, and coffee is still one of our number one passions!

With this in mind, a few exciting opportunities have presented themselves recently, including a new partnership with Crave Coffee in which we will be attending a number of festivals this year as 'Abda Alchemists' aka 'baristas' to brew their beautiful beans. So we're undergoing a little rebrand to allow us to bid farewell to the cacao era of HALA, but also pursue new opportunities with consultancy.

From now on we present you...

If you made it this far...thank you so much for reading, and for continuing to support our little businesses.

I recently posted a pretty honest post on my own social media (which I shared on our ABDA socials but will also link here if you missed it) about how tough it has been feeling recently within hospitality, and the brutal reality of increasing negative reviews and closing businesses. We really are truly grateful for every single customer, and the support you show us - thank you for sticking around!

Have a wonderful week! See you in the shops soon?

(and hopefully at some of the wonderful events we have planned too!)
