

Press News- April 1, 2022

Alchemy Creative Inc. (the “Company”) OTC Pink: ALMY is pleased to announce that Dr. Shuji Tsuruoka has joined the executive team in its wholly owned subsidiary, Nanoland USA, Incorporated (NLUSA).

Onboarding as the company’s Chief Technical Officer, Dr. Tsuruoka is an internationally recognized semantic scholar bringing a deep technical experience concentrated in nano-carbon and carbon-nanotubes - to propel NLUSA into its commercial growth phase.

Dr. Tsuruoka is one of Japan’s most famous researchers in safety of nanotechnology and on March 31st 2022, retired from Japan’s Institute of Carbon Science and Technology, Shinshu University. He has made significant contributions to the emerging field of nanotechnology and nanotoxicological evaluations and collaborates with major toxicological study institutes over the world.

Nanoland USA founder D. Spencer Riley commented, “We are quite fortunate to welcome Shuji to the Nanoland executive team as we continue to seek and source world class collaborators. Dr. Tsuruoka is a true visionary and internationally known toxicologist that brings a healthy proponent of ambition to further disruptive technologies and capture commercial sales opportunities.”

"The vision and opportunity to scale at Nanoland captured my attention from the very beginning. I’m excited about solving complex issues that will help the business deliver on our core mission with transformative technology," said Dr. Tsuruoka of his new role. He continued, " NLUSA has a great culture and great culture brings great people - I'm looking forward to leading and mentoring this team into new realms of success."
