

16th Annual Arts Integration Conference
Enhancing Instruction, Enriching Lives

Saturday, October 1, 2022 Draft Program

9 - 9:10 am	Welcome - Dr. Patricia Young, Chair, Education Department Introduction, Dr. Linda Oliva Performance Hall – Second Floor
9:10 - 9:30 am	Opening Remarks - Dana Carr Performance Hall – Second Floor
9:30 - 10:20 am	Keynote Melisa Cahnmann-Taylor Performance Hall – Second Floor
10:30-11:15 am	Artivism: The Power of Art for Social Transformative Life Progressing Experiences  Carolina Cambronero Varel and Argie Agelarakis	Teacher Evaluation for Arts Integrated Environment  Dr. Julian Lazarus	Fulbright Teaching & Research Abroad with the Arts  Melisa Cahnmann-Taylor	Data Visualization Through Art  Colby Tofel-Grehl	Learning Should Be Loud: Arts Integrated Classrooms; Nina Lattimore, Principal & Team of Teachers
11:15-12	STE(A)M: An art +/- science paradigm for radical futures  Morna McNulty	Yes and: Improvisation with SEL in the Classroom  Aubree Slaik	Activate ARTivism to Achieve Social Justice Learning  Eileen Cave	Beignets in the Bayou!  Karen Campbell-Keubler
12 - 1 pm	Lunch Theater Atrium – Ground Floor Food Trucks or box lunch purchase
1-2:35 pm	Cross-Curricular Connections in the Visual Arts Classroom  Casey Perkins		Once Upon A Rhythm  Quynn Johnson	I Like to Move It: Making More Connections Through Movement and Music  Thomas Pierre	Learning Should Be Loud: Arts Integrated Classrooms  Nina Lattimore, Principal & Team of Teachers
2:40 -3:50 pm	Using Participatory Theatre to explore our STEAM identity: An Interactive Workshop  Brian Francoise	Math Detectives -Where's the Math? Using Drama to Discover the Math Hidden in Books  Katherine Lyons	Moving Through the Elements of Dance  Lacey Shepherd
3:50 pm	Door Prizes - Certificates of Attendance Theater Atrium – Ground Floor				