

La Petite Chartreuse Monastery
Inquirer Initial Information Exchange

La Petite Chartreuse Monastery
will be a new foundation of cloistered nuns drawing inspiration from the Consuetudines of Guigo the Carthusian, and the Statutes of the Carthusian Order, and seeking to practice full Papal Enclosure. Former religious or other women who have discerned a call to Enclosure, Silence, Solitude, and the Solemn Latin Monastic Office, and who also want a rich and emotionally healthy community life are encouraged to contact us by email : admin@lapetitechartreuse.org

In an initial inquiry, we want to get to know each other. Then there can be a phone call, and either a few short visits, or one longer visit (a month long aspirancy) precedes the postulancy. Please include the following information in your initial inquiry letter.

How much time do you spend with family and what are your family responsibilities? Describe...
